MAGUGIRI BHAGWANGIRI GOSWAMI

Versus

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE

Appearance:

MS DR KACHHAVAH for Petitioner
MR KT DAVE, AGP, for Respondent No. 1, 2, 3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE A.L.DAVE

Date of decision: 25/04/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City, Ahmedabad, passed an order on October 13, 1999, in exercise of powers under Section 3(1) of the Gujarat
Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 ("PASA
Act" for short), detaining the petitioner-Magugiri

Bhagwangiri Goswami, under the provisions of the said Act.

2. The detaining authority took into consideration one offence registered against the petitioner, so also the statements of two anonymous witnesses. The detaining authority considered the activities of the detenu as that of a bootlegger as defined under the PASA Act and observed that the petitioner is required to be immediately prevented from pursuing his activities, which are detrimental to public order. The authority also considered the possibility of resorting to less drastic remedies and came to conclusion that detention under PASA Act is the only remedy that can be resorted to.

3. The petitioner challenges the order of detention on various grounds. Ms. Kachhavah, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, has restricted his arguments to the ground that there is improper exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act. She has drawn attention of this Court to the fact that the statements of anonymous witnesses were verified on October 13, 1999 and on that very day, the order of detention was passed. The authority, therefore, had no time to undertake the exercise of verifying the correctness and genuineness of the fear expressed by the witnesses qua the detenu. Ms.Kachhavah submitted further submitted that, when the order was passed, the detenu was in judicial custody. The authority has not recorded any compelling reasons for passing the order of detention when the detenu was in judicial custody.

4. Mr. K.T. Dave, learned Assistant Government Pleader, has opposed this petition.

5. Considering rival side contentions, it appears that the statements of anonymous witnesses have been recorded on October 12, 1999. The same have been verified by the detaining authority on October 13, 1999 and the order is passed on that very day. So far as the statements of anonymous witnesses are concerned, it may be noted that the detaining authority has observed that the fear expressed by the witnesses and the statements and the statements are correct and genuine. Barring this statement in the grounds of detention, there appears nothing to indicate an exercise having been undertaken by the detaining authority for verifying correctness and genuineness of the statements and the fear expressed by the witnesses. The detaining authority has to take into consideration the background, the antecedents, the character, etc. of the detenu while considering the need for exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act. The authority has to scale the right of the detenu of making an effective representation on the one hand and the public interest on the other and has to strike a balance between the two. The detaining authority has not filed any affidavit nor is there any contemporaneous material to indicate undertaking of such exercise by the detaining authority and, therefore, the exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act can be taken to have vitiated. No reliance, therefore, can be placed on these statements for sustaining the order of detention. There is improper exercise of powers under Section 9(2), as there is no material to indicate the exercise as stated above (Bai Amina v. State of Gujarat & Ors., 1981 GLR 1186 and Kalidas Chandubhai Kahar v. State of Gujarat & Ors., 1993(2) GLR 1659).

6. The order is bad in law on other count also. When the order was passed, the detenu was in judicial custody. There is nothing to indicate that there was an application moved by the detenu for being enlarged on bail. Barring one registered offence, there are no antecedents. The detaining authority has not recorded any compelling reasons for passing this order while the detenu was in judicial custody. The order is, therefore, rendered bad in law in view of the decision in the case of Sanjeevkumar Aggarwal v. Union of India, AIR 1990 SC 1202. The petition deserves to be allowed on this count alone.

6. In the result, the petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated October 13, 1999, passed against the detenu is hereby quashed. The detenu-Magugiri Bhagwangiri Goswami is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other matter. Rule is made absolute with no orders as to costs.
